Katsura Yasufumi Nakamori, 2010 Catalog of an exhibition held at the Museum of Fine Arts Houston June 20 Sept 12 2010 For a New World to Come Yasufumi Nakamori, Yuko Fujii (Research fellow), 2015 18 contributed articles interspersed with 21 short studies one page of text and 3 pages of pictures of particular artists photographers Naoya Hatakeyama Naoya Hatakeyama, 2018 For the past thirty years Japanese photographer Naoya Hatakeyama has undertaken a photographic examination of the life of cities and the built environment Naoya Hatakeyama Excavating the Future City is the first English language survey on this renowned Japanese photographer his work will be introduced by his own writings as well as in depth essays by Yasufumi Nakamori Toyo Ito and Philippe Forest Locating Sol LeWitt David S. Areford, 2021-03-23 A revelatory consideration of the wide ranging practice of one of the most influential American artists of the 20th century A pioneer of minimalism and conceptual art Sol LeWitt 1928 2007 is best known for his monumental wall drawings LeWitt's broad artistic practice however also included sculpture printmaking photography artist's books drawings gouaches and folded and ripped paper works From the familiar to the underappreciated aspects of LeWitt's oeuvre this book examines the ways that his art was multidisciplinary humorous philosophical and even religious Locating Sol LeWitt contains nine new essays that explore the artist's work across media and address topics such as LeWitt's formative friendships with colleagues at the Museum of Modern Art in the early 1960s his photographs of Manhattan's Lower East Side his 1979 collaboration with Lucinda Childs and Philip Glass and its impact on his printmaking and his commissions linked to Jewish history and the Holocaust The essays offer insights into the role of parody experimentation and uncertainty in the artist's practice and investigate issues of site space and movement Together these studies reveal the full scope of LeWitt's creativity and offer a multifaceted reassessment of this singular and influential artist Francis Bacon Mark Stevens, Annalyn Swan, 2021-03-23 THE TIMES BEST ART BOOK OF THE YEAR FINALIST FOR THE PLUTARCH AWARD AND THE APOLLO AWARD There are not many biographical masterpieces but Mark Stevens and Annalyn Swan have produced one wrote the novelist John Banville of Francis Bacon Revelations By the Pulitzer prize winning authors of de Kooning An American Master this acclaimed biography contains a wealth of never before known details about one of the iconic artists of the 20th century a singularly private darkly funny eruptive man and his extraordinary art whose iconoclastic charm keeps the pages turning The Washington Post Francis Bacon created an indelible image of mankind in modern times and played an outsized role in both twentieth century art and life from his public emergence with his legendary Triptych 1944 its images so unrelievedly awful that people fled the gallery to his death in Madrid in 1992 Bacon was a witty free spirit and unabashed homosexual at a time when many others remained closeted and his exploits were as unforgettable as his images He moved among the worlds of London's Soho and East End the literary salons of London and Paris and the homosexual life of Tangier Through hundreds of interviews and extensive new research the authors probe Bacon's childhood in Ireland he earned his father's lasting disdain because his asthma prevented him from hunting his increasingly open homosexuality his early design career never before explored in detail the formation of his vision his early failure as an artist his uneasy relationship with American abstract art and his improbable late emergence onto the international stage as one of the great visionaries of the twentieth century In all Francis Bacon Revelations gives us a more complete and nuanced and more international portrait than ever before of this singularly private darkly funny eruptive man and his equally eruptive extraordinary art Bacon was not just an influential artist he helped remake the twentieth century figure

Photography, A Feminist History Emma Lewis, 2021-10-26 This feminist retelling of the history of photography puts women in the picture and more importantly behind the camera In ten thematic chronological sections Tate Modern curator Emma Lewis explores the vital role women artists have played in shaping the ever evolving medium of photography Lewis has compiled work from more than 200 different women and nonbinary photographers along with short essays on 75 different artists many informed by her interviews with the subjects From the studio portraiture of the late nineteenth century to the photojournalism of Dorothea Lange and Lee Miller in the early twentieth and from second wave feminist critiques of gender roles to contemporary selfies and social media personae this volume examines different genres styles and approaches to photography from the 1800s to the present UNPARALLELED IN SCOPE International inclusive and intersectional this comprehensive volume tells the story of a versatile and innovative medium From early twentieth century self portraits responding to modernity and changing notions of womanhood to photojournalistic images documenting the climate crisis the photographs in this book demonstrate the varied ways that women respond to and shape the global cultural landscape The artists profiled here include Sheila Pree Bright Imogen Cunningham Paz Err zuriz Nan Goldin Kati Horna Mari Katayama Dora Maar Lee Miller Tina Modotti Zanele Muholi Shirin Neshat Cindy Sherman Lieko Shiga Lorna Simpson Amalia Ulman And more INSIGHTFULLY ORGANIZED The thematic chapters of this project showcase photography s changing role in society and art They allow the author to explore and contextualize how this role has or hasn t made space for women and people of marginalized genders and how the work done on the margins of the medium pushes the boundaries of technology and creative expression This is not simply a collection of women photographers it s a book about how and why women and nonbinary artists have used photography to respond to and shape their own realities Perfect for Photographers artists and students and art lovers Anyone interested in the history of photography Intersectional feminists Trailblazing women and the people who love and support them

An Interview with Lewis Baltz [discourse #2]

DUNCAN. FORBES, Mack, 2020-08-15 Queer Methodology for Photography Asa Johannesson, 2024-02-01 This book presents new ways of approaching photographic discourse from a queer perspective offering discussions on what a queering methodology for photography may entail by drawing links between artistic strategies in photographic practice and key theoretical concepts from photography theory queer theory critical theory and philosophy With different examples of conceptual perspectives including representation formalism and mediumlessness it seeks to diversify queer methodology for photography While primarily addressing photography this book is entwined with broader philosophical questions concerning identity difference and the creations of systems of thought that limit the possibilities of existence to binary categorisation It proposes a new concept of the photographic image that addresses its materiality in the form of the poetic and the political in relationship to a generative principle that is named as a queer quality the photograph's ability to voice queer concerns also beyond its role as representation This book will be of interest to scholars working in photography art history queer studies new materialism and posthumanism Hibi Postcards Masahisa Fukase, 2016 Index of Patents Issued from the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 1991 Gender Violence, Art, and the Viewer Ellen C. Caldwell, Cynthia S. Colburn, Ella J. Gonzalez, 2024-08-02 The works covered in college art history classes frequently depict violence against women Traditional survey textbooks highlight the impressive formal qualities of artworks depicting rape murder and other violence but often fail to address the violent content and context Gender Violence Art and the Viewer investigates the role that the art history field has played in the past and can play in the future in education around gender violence in the arts It asks art historians museum educators curators and students to consider how in the time of MeToo a public reckoning with gender violence in art can revitalize the field of art history Contributors to this timely volume amplify the voices and experiences of victims and survivors depicted throughout history critically engage with sexually violent images open meaningful and empowering discussions about visual assaults against women reevaluate how we have viewed and narrated such works and assess how we approach and teach famed works created by artists implicated in gender based violence Gender Violence Art and the Viewer includes contributions by the editors as well as Veronica Alvarez Indira Bailey Melia Belli Bose Charlene Villase or Black Ria Brodell Megan Cifarelli Monika Fabijanska Vivien Green Fryd Carmen Hermo Bryan C Keene Natalie Madrigal Lisa Rafanelli Nicole Scalissi Hallie Rose Scott Theresa Sotto and Angela Two Stars It is sure to be of keen interest to art history scholars and students and anyone working at the intersections of art and social justice Shooting for Change Jung Joon Lee, 2024-02-23 Jung Joon Lee examines postwar Korean photography across multiple genres and practices showing how the practice of photography is central to shaping memory of historical events representing the ideal national family and motivating social movements Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 1999 Who is Changed and who is Dead Ahndraya Parlato, 2021 In Who is Changed and Who is Dead Ahndraya Parlato uses the life changing events of her mother's suicide and the birth of her children as the genesis for an expansive project exploring the contradictory and complex conditions of motherhood The resulting image text book threads the political and historical with the deeply personal bringing together narratives from across genres and generations to create a nuanced and compelling body of work Interwoven with her own writings are still lifes sculptures photograms made from her mother's ashes and reenactments of 19th century hidden mother images Included amongst these are Parlato's photographs of her children who are shown with both a fidelity to maternal intimacy and a more distanced contemplation Within this complexity Parlato strives to find clarity around the fundamental questions of parenthood mortality and gender Are her contemporary fears any different than the fears felt by mothers throughout history Which anxieties are specific to having female children And how is motherhood itself a construction

The Geometries of Afro Asia Joan Kee, 2023-04-18 How do we embark on a history of art that proceeds from the assumption of a global majority Taking as a rhetorical departure the construct of Afro Asia which doubles as both an ontological reference and an epistemological intervention this book centers the worlds Black and Asian artists initiate through their work Afro Asia breaks down delineated time into points trajectories angles magnitudes and relative positions so that temporality and chronology figure primarily as questions of geometry it asks if and how we can we be something other than what biology politics culture and economics tells us we are or must become Spanning North America Europe Asia and Africa this book challenges the institutionalization of contemporary art as a global enterprise increasingly governed by the judgments of a self selecting minority

Residual Futures Franz Prichard, 2019-04-23 In the postwar years an eruption of urbanization took place across Japan from its historical central cities to the outer reaches of the archipelago During the 1960s and 1970s Japanese literary and visual media took a deep interest in cities and their problems and what this rapid change meant for the country In Residual Futures Franz Prichard offers a pathbreaking analysis of the works wrought from this intensive urbanization mapping the ways in which Japanese filmmakers writers photographers and other artists came to grips with the entwined ecologies of a drastic transformation Residual Futures examines crucial works of documentary film fiction and photography that interrogated Japan's urbanization and integration into the U S dominated geopolitical system Prichard discusses documentary filmmaker Tsuchimoto Noriaki's portrait of the urban traffic war and the remaking of Tokyo for the 1964 Olympics novelist Abe K b's depictions of infrastructure and urban sociality and the radical notions of landscape that emerge from the critical and photographic work of Nakahira Takuma His careful readings reveal the shifting relationships among urban materialities and subjectivities and the ecological political and aesthetic vocabularies of urban change A novel cultural history of critical urban discourse in Japan Residual Futures brings an interdisciplinary approach to Japanese literary and visual media studies It provides a vital new perspective on the infrastructural aesthetics and entangled urban and media conditions of the global Cold War

The Runaway Species David Eagleman, Anthony Brandt, 2018-06-19 This enlightening examination of creativity looks at art and science together to examine how innovations build on what already exists and rely on three brain operations bending breaking and blending The Wall Street Journal The

Runaway Species is a deep dive into the creative mind a celebration of the human spirit and a vision of how we can improve our future by understanding and embracing our ability to innovate David Eagleman and Anthony Brandt seek to answer the question what lies at the heart of humanity's ability and drive to create Our ability to remake our world is unique among all living things But where does our creativity come from how does it work and how can we harness it to improve our lives schools businesses and institutions Eagleman and Brandt examine hundreds of examples of human creativity through dramatic storytelling and stunning images in this beautiful full color volume By drawing out what creative acts have in common and viewing them through the lens of cutting edge neuroscience they uncover the essential elements of this critical human ability and encourage a more creative future for all of us The Runaway Species approach es creativity scientifically but sensitively feeling its roots without pulling them out The Economist Beyond the Feminine Ope Lori, 2025-06-26 How can contemporary artists and image makers challenge representations of race and gender in visual culture and produce alternate visions Exploring a range of lens based British art that engages with questions of race and gender this book critiques power structures that embed racial dichotomies to arrive at a nuanced understanding of the position of race in contemporary visual culture It examines how white and light skinned Black women are privileged over Black and dark skinned women in music videos advertising and even in classic paintings Focusing on skin colour as implicit in constructions of femininity the works discussed deconstruct the links between race and gender to expose hidden power relations Presenting intimate interviews with four British artists NT Marcia Michael Sadie Lee and Ajamu X along with the author's own artistic practice this book provides a much needed toolkit for image makers and critics alike Using the analogy of the set up this boundary breaking book encourages us to not only question what we see but to see differently beyond the conventions of the male gaze Reversing normative categories and social hierarchies Beyond the Feminine puts forth a new gaze an up set to the system
