Estamos Bien: La Trienal 20/21 Elia Alba, 2021-06-29 Documenting the Barrio's first national survey of Latinx art featuring more than 40 artists from the US and Puerto Rico. This publication features the work of the 42 participating artists and collectives included in the highly anticipated titular exhibition organized by El Museo del Barrio in New York. The result of two years of research, this project is the museum's first nationwide exhibition and publication exploring the diverse landscape of contemporary Latinx artists working in the United States and Puerto Rico. The volume includes an essay by the curators, a conversation between some of the artists conducted by artist Elia Alba as part of her Supper Club series, and illustrated individual short interviews with the participants. A closing anthology brings together poems and excerpts of essays by Lourdes Alberto, Ariana Brown, Karla Cornejo Villavicencio, Deborah Cullen, Carolina Ponce de León, Esteban Jefferson, Ed Morales, Alan Pelaez López, Dixa Ramírez, Oleo Rose Salseda, and Adriana Zavala. Michael Menchaca: Vignettes from San Antonio Ruiz-Healy Art, 2018-06-12 Vignettes From San Antonio is an exhibition primarily focused on my turn to collage as a method to produce a series of drawings. I wanted to include traditional artworks where my hand was largely present in the works. I maintain a practice of constantly sketching on loose sheets of paper throughout my daily life. I am so used to producing artworks minimizing any evidence of my hand as in my printmaking work, and I'm at a point right now where I am feeling a necessity to exhibit new kinds of work with entirely new subject matter. I knew I wanted to make personal work for my inaugural show at Ruiz Healy that did not focus on the divisions currently facing our country, which meant shifting the focus from objective analysis of current events and moving towards subjective, very personal and uncharted territory for me. Michael Menchaca: Latinx Art Arlene Dávila, 2020-07-24 In Latinx Art, Arlene Dávila draws on numerous interviews with artists, dealers, and curators to explore the problem of visualizing Latinx art and artists. Providing an inside and critical look of the global contemporary art market, Dávila's book is at once an introduction to contemporary Latinx art and a call to decolonize the art worlds and practices that erase and whitewash Latinx artists. Dávila shows the importance of race, class, and nationalism in shaping contemporary art markets while providing a path for scrutinizing art and culture institutions and for diversifying the art world. Advanced Origami Michael G.
